1ST PRIZE - PETER STEVENSON

The wonderful thing about cider,
Is that cider's a wonderful thing.
The fizz and the tang
And the songs we all sang
As our cricket team scored its first win!

2ND PRIZE - ANTHONY WATTS

A scone is a scone is a scon,
Depending whose side you are on.
When writing in verse
This can prove a real curse
(Should you rhyme it with Joan or with John?)

3RD PRIZE - LUCY M<sup>C</sup>CAUL

The Somerset cider's called Scrumpy,
Made from apples both smooth-skinned and lumpy.
If you drink it down quick
Better carry a stick
Or the road will seem terribly bumpy!
